Attractions

What are the places of interest?

There are a number of tourist attractions in the hill station of Munnar. Travelers can have panoramic views of the verdant surroundings and forested hills from Munnar. Walks and hiking around the small town of Munnar offer an exhilarating experience. Travelers can also enjoy walking amongst the numerous tea estates of Munnar and view the entire process of making tea, right from plucking of tea leaves to their processing at the Kundala tea plantation.

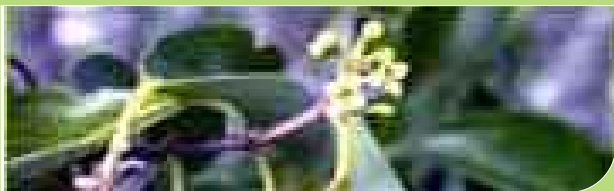

Anaimudi

The highest peak in Southern India can be viewed from Munnar.

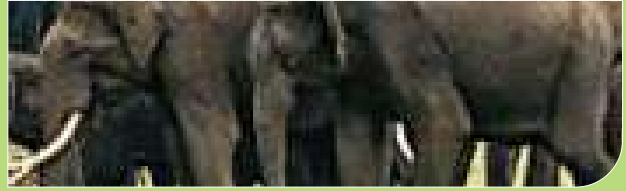

Munnar is a collection of vast green tea estates first established by a Scotsman in the late 19th century. Besides enjoying the rolling mists and endless greenery, you can arrange a tea factory visit and a stopover at the Tea Museum.

Marayoor

The only place in Kerala with a natural growth of sandalwood trees, Marayoor has caves with murals and relics and a children's park spread across a hectare of land under the canopy of a single Banyan tree.

Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary

The Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary is 70 km from Munnar. This sanctuary is the home of elephants, leopards, and bear. Top Station, bordering the state of Kerala, offers spectacular views of the Western Ghats. Both make excellent excursion options from Munnar.

Devikulam

Devikulam' literally means 'the lake of the goddess'. Irresistibly green slopes touching the sky, a lovely and a little lake hidden within the rolling hills-a perfect picture of fairy- tale enchantment.

What unique products could I buy to take back home?

Munnar is famous for tea and spices. Tourists may buy it straight from the numerous tea estates or from the various shops in Munnar. The resort has a well-stocked Souvenir Shop and Grocery shop with an array of items like Spices, Tea and local curios.

Which are some wild life preserves?

The Evarikulam National Park is 12 km from Munnar. This national park is home to elephants, lion-tailed macaque, and the Nilgiri tahr (a rare mountain goat). Travelers can also explore the Rajamala Hills adjoining the national park as an excursion option from Munnar.

Marayoor is 45 km from Munnar to east of the Evarikulam National Park. Here one can experience the peaceful ambience and beauty of a sandalwood forest.

The Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary is 70 km from Munnar. This sanctuary is the home of elephants, leopards, and bear. Top Station, bordering the state of Kerala, offers spectacular views of the Western Ghats. Both make excellent excursion options from Munnar.
